Relay for Life - Viborg

5.9 at 11.00 am – 6.9 2020 at 11.00 am
The event takes place at Borgvold.

Due of the many changes of both small and large events in the spring, there are many events that have been moved to autumn. Unfortunately that means, that some events now fall on the same dates, which makes the calendar planning a bit difficult at times.

Therefore, this year Selah Center does not put up a stand and tent in the city park for this year's Relay for Life in Viborg.

We will find alternative ways to support the fight against cancer and will provide more information on how to join later.

Follow Selah Center's Facebook page and the info posted in Selah Center after the summer holidays.

WORSHIP- AND CAFÉ NIGHT 21. AUGUST AT 7.00 PM

Welcome to a great evening in the company of the songwriters and musicians Noel and Tricia Richards.

This is the second time they are visiting the Selah Center and we are looking forward to an evening of praise, fellowship and atmosphere.

He has a large number of CD releases, both solo recordings and with bands and he has written many of our well known worship songs.

Together, Tricia and Noel Richards have released a recording of acoustic music, with a variety of both old and new songs.

"Seek first the kingdom of God"

John 14:6 I am the way, the truth and the life.

As we have mentioned in previous editions of "Greetings from the pastor", we cannot in the long run just follow the trends and fashion phenomena that are up in the present time. We humans need something more stable to control our beliefs and behaviors. We must be careful not to spend too much of our time chasing education and career, prosperity and wealth, beauty, power and influence, etc. We must be careful not to lose the time needed to find peace and enjoy life.

We can look back on spring as that time, where our freedom to move freely as individuals was drastically cut back and that happened with a very short notice. We could no longer decide for ourselves who or how many we would meet with, or where and when and how often we were together with family and friends.

Much has already been said and written about the negative and damaging effects that this drastic intervention has had in several areas.

We also have to remember to ask ourselves, if there only were negative things coming as a result of this temporary change? Were there really no good outcome? Did we only lose something or did we also gain something good from this period as well?

Well, we did, because we got something back that we had lost in our busy lives. What we got back is one of the most valuable things we have, and from constantly having too little of it, it suddenly seemed as if we now had plenty of it. I think of our time, of course. How should we spend all that time we suddenly got? It didn't take long before we discovered that the time could be spent on something that we had not prioritized in our busy lives. It was as if we were re-discovering the value of close fellowship with family, friends and neighbors.

There was even time to read a good book and reflect on life itself, something that we only rarely had time for or took time for in our busy everyday life. When we, hopefully soon, regain our lost freedom, it is important not to be caught off guard again, but hold on to the freedom to prioritize the things which really give life value and quality.

One of the things we could spend time on, is meditating on the importance of the words of Jesus: "I am the way and the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father without me."

There is one little word in particular in this passage that can help us focus on the important goals in life. I think of the word is.

Not was, or will be, but he is.

He is not one of many truths that are equally good, he is the Truth.

He is not one of many ways that lead to God, he is the Way, he is the only Way.

He is not just one of several ways to live a good life, he is the Life, and only through him will we receive eternal life.

Seek fellowship and prioritize time with him, reflect on his words, then the kingdom of God will grow and prosper in us and will affect our environment.

The foundation of Christianity and the Kingdom of God is Jesus Christ, his teachings, his death and resurrection, and his promise of eternal life to all who receives him in faith.

Let us continue to seek the kingdom of God first. Then we will find the stability and security, peace and joy, acceptance and forgiveness, faith, hope, love and eternal life that the scriptures speak of.

Greetings from Pastor Ruben
