A word from the pastor- spring 2024

" Expectation"

Luke chapter 2 verses 1-20

Regardless of whether you have a tendency towards optimism or pessimism, whether you look at life from the bright or dark side, whether you always see the opportunities or the problems in life, it is a fact that we live in a very special time.

There is a lot of turmoil and chaos in the world, where everything is changing very fast.

There are constantly new challenges that need to be addressed, it is always about securing the future.

The over all problem is just that nobody really knows what the future will look like, the day tomorrow can offer the unexpected. So how should we behave in order to be best equipped to face a future that we are so uncertain about?

Throughout history there have been periods when people said to each other that now there is peace, there is stability and balance in the world, a safe and bright future awaits.

In other periods, the world view and future prospects have been looking completely different, more like today.

One moment there is peace in Europe and the Middle East and the next year there is turmoil and war with all that this entails of misfortune and human suffering.

Just think of the situation in Ukraine and Gaza, where there is war, or the somewhat unstable political situation around the world.

Where does the text in Luke's Gospel chapter 2 fit into the above worldview? Yes, you see, the second chapter of the Gospel of Luke, also called the Christmas Gospel, is about Jesus being born into this world, in a time comparable to ours.

Almost no one was expecting his arrival just at this time, so they had not prepared any welcome.

But suddenly he was there. And who would have expected the saviour of the world to come into the world, that night, in this way, under these conditions, in a stable and not in nice surroundings.

What does that have to do with us today?

Although God had several times in the Old Testament predicted and promised that Jesus would come to earth as the savior of the world, people were still not prepared for his arrival.

We read about how Jesus was born into this world to complete the work of salvation on Calvary, but the scriptures also clearly speak of the end times, the rapture and that Jesus' return is near.

The big question is just whether we are prepared his time! Are we like the five wise bridesmaids who lived in anticipation that he might come at whatever moment it should be. Or is it with us as with the five foolish and unprepared bridesmaids who did not keep their lamps in order. The Gospel of Matthew 25,1-13

In the Gospel of Luke chapter 2,14 we read that there is "peace to those on whom his favor rest".

What does it mean to have God's favor? Who has God's favor? Those who from a sincere heart seek to do God's will. His will is to live and love the Lord with all our heart and our neighbor as himself, to seek God's kingdom above all else, to live in anticipation of his soon return and that we, as his disciples, bring the gospel to as many as possible.

Finally, we know that no one knows the time or hour when Jesus will return, only the father does. But he is coming, so let us lift up the shield of faith with patience.

Greetings from Pastor Ruben.

& WORSHIP TEAM

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. (Acts 2: 1-4)

“And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. (Joels 2:28 NIV)
